Bio on Mrs. Bobbie Ann Boroughs

While Mrs. Bobbie Ann does not have a special education degree, what she does have is far more valuable and applicable to the needs of the autistic child. She and her husband Dave have a twelve year old son, Jordan, who is autistic. Through attendance to countless workshops and seminars, and from hours of personal research, she has acquired a wisdom that surpasses anything that would be attained solely from a classroom setting. With a heart for God and a passion for His special children, Mrs. Bobbie Ann has the enthusiasm and the experience to instruct children with autism.

Training received from and in:

- Dozens of TRIAD workshops
- ABA (Applied Behavior Analysis)
- TEACCH techniques
- Behavioral management
- Sensory techniques
- PECS (Picture Exchange Communication System)
- Mainstreaming
- Social skills
- Self-help skills

Currently, Mrs. Bobbie Ann is enrolled in a class entitled Autism: Behavioral Strategies. She is also involved in a "Basic Level Autism Team Training" workshop where she will receive a certificate for her accomplishments within this area.
